when i chose the lone wolf as a title for my collection of wolf inspired prose my thinking was this drawing parallels between the predator wolf the lone wolf the alpha wolf and the alpha personality in man highlighting the traits that unite yet define each we are individuals ergo lone we are honor bound loyal loving and fierce ergo wolf we embody traits that protect teach and love our pack ergo alpha we generally mate for life in our heart of hearts and in our soul man and wolf are the upper echelon of beasts with an honor code and react similarly to any threat or breach we are one we are lone we are alpha we are alpha wolves this is an inspiring collection of short fiction that touches on a variety of themes luna was expected to be alpha until he was banished for a crime no one committed now if he can survive on his own he will try to find his way back to the alpha he was born to be or turn from it forever when a large family moves into the house near where he and his father live in the woods perry's friendship with the oldest girl helps him come to terms with his sister's death and his parents' divorce celebrated for its commitment to independence and fearless individualism america in fact dismisses independent thinkers and nonconformists in favor of the team player the company man and the go along to get along mentality this anti intellectual mindset despises and discredits those who are solitary and reclusive while we look up to literary loners like poe and melville and dickinson the man in the street is a compulsive joiner of clubs and herds from university frats to the order of the pink goat to the contrary this book is a paean vigorously endorsing america's lone wolves cultural hermits and all such independent thinkers solitary and marginalized figures who are the cultural bedrock of the nation that detests them unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 we have not used ocr optical character recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 in books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc we have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy as the attacks in norway munich and most recently christchurch have shown a new threat is now shaking liberal western societies radicalized right wing extremists so called lone wolves are engaging in individually planned terror attacks written by an expert on terrorism and populism this book highlights the dynamics of this new breed of terrorism by providing in depth insights into the biographies of individual perpetrators it illustrates the changing profile of the typical lone terrorist this new kind of terrorist engages in violence without being a member of a party or organization yet is radicalized by a global right wing subculture that communicates in virtual networks this startling and well written book reveals the ideological roots of lone wolf terrorism and urges governments and civil society to take the threat seriously and implement suitable countermeasures
